The HOLY FATHER'S Prayer Intention

for January: "Let us pray that young people, especially in Latin America, follow the example of Mary and respond to the call of the Lord to communicate the joy of the Gospel to the world".

The Holy Father mentions, in this month's Intention, young people in Latin America—he is thinking of World Youth Day, about to begin in Panama. Let's pray for God's blessing on that great event.

Leaflets giving all the Monthly Intentions of Pope Francis for 2019 are available, free, today. Speak to Fr. David (National Promoter) if you'd like to know more about this ministry.

That they may be one! John 17:11.

The Fourth Gospel puts these words on Jesus's lips on the night before His crucifixion; we find Jesus praying for unity four more times in the same chapter, each time using these words. St. Paul speaks of unity in the Spirit in several places. The unity that is clearly God's desire, is not uniformity nor is it only for the original apostles but a deep desire that all who follow Jesus be profoundly united.

Perhaps the most saddening feature of our contemporary life, especially in the political arena, is division and discord. Rooted in fear, prejudice has taken hold whether it's about our position on Brexit or our attitude to the stranger in our midst or the refugee, or the person needing help. Some of our young people are attacking, even killing their peers on our streets because they belong to different gangs. Yet at other times, especially in this parish of ours, all sorts of people from so many backgrounds not only get on, but do work together for the sake of the Gospel. We witness that there is much to value in diversity but not in disunity.

A political party strives for unity because its strategists know that disunity won't appeal to the voters. Just look at the headlines in the papers any day—they're not achieving that, by a long way! They're split, plotting and fighting, hardly giving a good example. Maybe we could use this Octave for Christian Unity to ponder and pray—is the sad fact of lack of unity among the followers of Christ similarly unattractive to people today? Would someone who has never heard of Jesus be attracted to him, to our church, to our parish if we appear to be exclusive, not open to those who are different to us? Let's listen to Jesus's heartfelt prayer.

David Stewart SJ.
