SYNOD OF THE CHURCH—WORKING DOCUMENT ISSUED

The document of some sixty pages incorporates the experiences of local Churches in every region of the world – Churches that are experiencing wars, climate change, economic systems that produce “exploitation, inequality, and ‘waste’”; Churches whose faithful suffer martyrdom, in countries where they are minorities or where they are coming to terms “with an increasingly driven, and sometimes aggressive, secularisation”; Churches wounded by sexual abuse, or abuses of power and conscience,” whether economic and institutional – wounds that demand answers and “conversion”; Churches that are fearlessly confronting the challenges by engaging in the synodal discernment, without trying to “resolve them at all costs”: “Only in this way can these tensions become sources of energy and not lapse into destructive polarisations.” Released on Tuesday morning, the document – known as the Instrumentum laboris – will be the basis for the work of the participants in the General Assembly of the Synod on Synodality, which begins in the Vatican in October 2023 and concludes with a second Assembly one year later. Deliberately conceived as a starting point and not a point of arrival, the IL brings together the experiences of dioceses around the world over the last two years, starting from 10 October 2021, when Pope Francis set in motion a journey to discern what steps to take “to grow as a synodal Church.” The IL, therefore, is intended as an aid for discernment “during” the General Assembly, while at the same time serving as a means of preparation for participants as it looks ahead to the gathering. “Indeed, the purpose of the synodal process” the document states, repeating the words of the earlier Document for the Continental stage, “is not to produce documents but to open horizons of hope for the fulfilment of the Church’s mission.”

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION July:

For a Eucharistic life

We pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a very deep way and opening to the encounter with God and all their brothers and sisters.

CHOIR: If your child can sing then please consider them joining our 9.30am Choir. The rehearsals are on Fridays after school. There are also vacancies for our 11am choir and for the Caribbean choir.

FEAST OF SAINT IGNATIUS LOYOLA: SUNDAY JULY 30th

We will celebrate our "Name Day" twice this year: on Sunday 30th July we will have the prayers of the St Ignatius Feast with the readings of the Sunday, and we will celebrate our patron saint again on Monday 31st July, the actual universal day of celebration.

We will be honoured to host the newly ordained Jesuit priest, Fr. Peter O'Sullivan, to celebrate his Mass of Thanksgiving on Sunday 30th at 11am. All are very welcome to attend this special occasion, and there will be a Reception in our parish hall immediately following this special Mass.

Peter's ordination is at Farm Street Church on Saturday 29th July at Farm Street Church, Mayfair, at noon.

Please attend if you can.

About Fr. Peter O'Sullivan SJ:

Peter was born in Farnham, Surrey, England. After graduating from university, he went to Alexandroupoulos, Greece, to teach English for two years, where he felt a call to serving communities as a priest. On returning to the UK, he contacted the Jesuits and entered the novitiate in Birmingham in 2011, taking vows two years later. As part of his Jesuit formation, he studied philosophy in Toronto, Canada and for his regency work placements, he worked at St John's Beaumont School and at St Beuno's Spirituality Centre. For theology, he was sent to Paris, where he was ordained a deacon. He is currently finishing a master's degree in contemporary church history at the Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium, while being a deacon at the two English-speaking parishes in the city.

Peter's ordination is on Saturday 29th July at Farm Street Church, Mayfair, at noon. Please attend if you can.
