CAFOD FAMILY FAST DAY—FRIDAY October 4th

[Image: CAFOD—Daniel in workshop]

“We learnt to make cabinets, tables and chairs. I loved everything they taught us. If God helps and this work expands, I can do greater things.” - Daniel Daniel is hard-working, resilient, and full of empathy. He really cares for the people around him and is determined to help his family.

Daniel who lives in Goma, in the Democratic Republic of Congo grew up with real poverty. Daniel's family didn't always have enough to eat, despite both of his parents working. There was no money to send him to school. As soon as he was old enough, he started looking for work so he could support his family to get food on the table. But without an education his opportunities for work were even more limited. Thankfully, he encountered a group of young men putting on dusty overalls outside a workshop. They told him they were learning carpentry at a CAFOD-funded training centre. He joined the carpentry training programme and with the help of our local experts, he worked diligently for eight months to train as a carpenter.

Daniel is a young person full of hope who got an opportunity that is not given to many other young people in his situation, he got the chance to learn carpentry. He now has his own workshop. He's not only crafting beautiful doors, chairs and cabinets for happy customers, he's also carving a better future for himself and his family.

With your support, many young people will also have the opportunity to learn new skills.

"The benefit of the vocational training is tremendous. The opportunity at first to learn something that will stay with them. That is the first thing, they're able to learn some life skill, that they will take with them throughout their lives. And through that, they will be able to train others, just like Daniel."
