Message of Pope Francis for Easter:

To “go to Galilee,” Pope Francis says, is to begin anew, to return to the place in our hearts where Jesus first called us to follow him. “In this Galilee,” the pope says, “we learn to be amazed by the Lord’s infinite love, which opens new trails along the path of our defeats.”

In times and places of challenge and struggle, it is comforting to know there is a loving and compassionate God whose own son rose to new life — the ultimate example, one might say, of “starting over.”

“It is always possible to begin anew,” Pope Francis assures us, “because there is always a new life that God can awaken in us in spite of all our failures. From the rubble of our hearts — and each one of us knows the rubble of our hearts — God can create a work of art; from the ruined remnants of our humanity, God can prepare a new history.” To “begin anew,” Francis continues, also means walking away from the tomb, to take new paths, and not hang onto “a faith of memories” or habits, a faith that no longer moves or challenges us.

“Going to Galilee,” he said, “means realizing that faith, if it is to be alive, must get back on the road. It must daily renew the first steps of the journey, the amazement of the first encounter.”

As we “begin anew,” we can draw strength from knowing that Jesus “is alive here and now.”

EASTER GARDEN: We welcome donations of flowering shrubs in pots for the Easter Garden (St Joseph Chapel) which will be present throughout the Easter Season. We are grateful to all who give so generously throughout the year to help us with our flowers.

Easter Collection: This year the entire collection will go towards our apostolate to the poor and homeless. Thank you for your generosity.
